

MacKlin-Graves, '12

The marriage of Miss Ella MacKlin of Pasadena, Cal., to Mr. George W. Graves took place December 16 at the home of the bride's mother in Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. Graves are at home at 395 Grand Avenue, Riverside, California, where the groom is a fruit grower.

* * *

Hibben-LaViolette, '13

The marriage of Miss Beulah Hibben to Mr. J. Walker LaViolette, took place January 1 at the home of the bride's parents in Alexandria, Indiana. Mr. LaViolette was active in student affairs while in college and was a member of the Gamma Delta Fraternity. The young couple will make their home in Valparaiso, Indiana, where the groom is general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Valparaiso University.

* * *

Hart-Torpey, '11

Miss Eula Hart and Clark Torpey were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in Tacoma November 13. The young couple are at home at Farmington, Wash., where Mr. Torpey is engaged in farming.

* * *

Barnard-Cowgill, ex-'08

Miss Mildred Barnard and Mr. Ralph Cowgill were married recently and are living in Medford, Ore.

* * *

McTier-Thornber, '11

On December 28 occurred the marriage of Miss Dottie McTier to Harvey Thornber at the home of the bride's father at Long Beach, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Thornber are at home in Kamloops, B. C., where the groom is in the employ of the provincial government as horticulturist.

Thousands of circulars upon the subjects of alfalfa, field peas, red clover, and corn have recently been mailed from the State College. These circulars give directions for preparing the ground, selecting seed, planting, cultivating, and harvesting these crops.

OBITUARY NOTICESMrs. Elizabeth V. Williams

Mrs. Elizabeth V. Williams, mother of Mrs. E. A. Bryan, died

Friday night, the 16th of January, at the home of President Bryan.

Mrs. Williams was born at Albion, Ill., in 1825, being 89 years of age at the time of her death. In 1855 she was married to L. V. Williams, who died in 1867. From this union six children were born. Mrs. E. A. Bryan of Pullman, Wash., and Jesse B. Williams of North Carolina are the only ones surviving.

Since 1886 Mrs. Williams has made her home with President Bryan's family and was well known by many people, who will remember her for her cheerful disposition. She was well and happy up to the time of her death and had celebrated her 89th birthday on January 15, when she had received a number of friends.

The funeral services were conducted at the Bryan home Sunday afternoon, January 18, and the body interred in the local cemetery.

* * *

W. D. Foster

After a short illness with pneumonia, W. D. Foster died at his home on the College Farm Sunday morning, January 19, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Foster was born in Scotland in 1851. He came to Pullman from Ontario, Canada, nearly twelve years ago. During this time he was connected with the work of the State College, serving as Superintendent of the College Farm. He was recognized as one of the best agriculturists of the state, and the position which his death has vacated will be difficult to fill.

Mr. Foster is survived by a wife, two daughters, a son, one brother, and relatives in Scotland. One daughter, Mrs. Thompson, resides at Grass Valley, Oregon, and the other daughter, Mrs. Ronson, with the son, Harry, live at Ontario, Canada. The brother, Henry Foster, resides at Colville, Wash.

After burial services conducted by the family at Pullman, the body was sent to Ontario, Canada, for burial.

* * *

Donald A. Fordyce

The death of Donald A. Fordyce, who graduated from the Washington State College with the class of 1910, occurred at Portland, Ore., on last Christmas eve.

While in college Mr. Fordyce was known as a brilliant and thorough student. He took a B. S. Degree in chemistry and completed a course in mining engineering. After leaving college he went to Spokane, where he entered the city chemist's office, later succeeding to the position of city chemist. Ill health compelled his resignation from this office after a brief period of service. He was later employed as asphalt inspector by various cities of the Northwest. During the second semester of last year he served as instructor in chemistry at W. S. C. At the time of his death, which was due to pneumonia, he was in charge of an assaying and testing laboratory in Portland, Ore.

Mr. Fordyce is survived by a mother, two brothers and two sisters.

* * *

Lee A. Johnson

Lee A. Johnson, ex-regent of the State College, died at his home in Portland, Ore., on January 19, 1914. During his services as regent he had the good and future of the college at heart and it is said of him that he always worked to the very best advantage of the institution. Mr. Johnson was appointed during the Hay administration and served well into the year of 1913. Before moving to Portland in 1911, he made his home at Sunnyside, where he was interested in banking and real estate. He served Yakima County in the lower house as representative in the fall of 1909.

* * *

Dr. W. E. Ralston

Word came to us soon after the holidays telling of the death of W. E. Ralston, who, until the time of his illness, served as instructor of veterinary medicine at the State College. Mr. Ralston was a graduate of the Ohio State University and at the State College was recognized by his students and associates as a very able instructor.

* * *

Helena Siemans

Miss Helena Siemans died November 28 after an illness of four months, in Fresno, California, where she went from Seattle in the hope of improving her health. Since her graduation from college in 1908, Miss Siemans has been teaching in the high schools of Seattle.