Col. and Mrs. Edward Kimmel, '98, 811 McKelligan Ave., notify us of the recent death of E. D. (Shorty) Stewart, '07. Dr. Harry E. Burke, '02, and his wife celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary April 8, 1957. The Burkes, who live at 16172 Mozart Ave., Los Gatos, Calif., have five children, fifteen grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Schuele, '04, 663 First Ave. North St. Petersburg, Fla., write: "We've reached the ripe old age of great grandparents—a great treasure. Our little great grandson, plus ten grandchildren, plus our son and daughter, plus Florida sunshine and other cultural attractions, keep us happy and content and also busy. May the Lord bless this Scholarship and Development fund."

Will H. Noble, '09, writes that he has been retired the past ten years; says he is in contact with some WSC alumni in California. He lives at 12912 E. Lambert Road, Whittier, Calif.

Paul Prentice, '08, 3122 No. Mt. View Drive, San Diego 16, Calif., writes that he is now retired and is basking in California sunshine. He has 13 grandchildren.

1910-1919

C. J. Cool, '12, 505 Columbia Bldg., Spokane, Wash., is starting his ninth year as owner and manager of the Spokane Office of the Clark-Brewer Teachers Agency.

Eva Hanna Cleland, '19, 903 E. Broadway, Monmouth, Ill., writes: "Since the death of my husband, Dean J. S. Cleland of Monmouth College, I have returned to teaching in the English Department at the college."

Coriene Slaght Howard, '27, 4134-11th Ave., N.E., Seattle 5, Wash., writes: "Learned why nurses don't take 24-hour shifts! I tried it for almost 5 years; was in the hospital two months last July following a severe operation and now, after four months of resting, I'm just beginning to take an interest in the world again. Better news next time, I'm sure. I think you have a wonderful plan for Progress."

1920-1929

Arlene Perry Ekstran, '28, and husband Herbert V. Ekstran, Bow, Wash., write that their son Gunner is graduating from Burlington-Edison High School this May, and that they hope he decides to attend WSC.

Don Moos, '47, lives at Edwall, Wash., and is the State President of the Young Republican Federation. His wife Parmalee (Brouillard, '47) is the state committee woman from Lincoln county. They have two children: Mary K. and Bill.

Hallam E. Nourse, '26, 36 Center Street, Hinsdale, Ill., will complete 30 years with United Air Lines May 24th.

M. Wiggen, '20, Box 3194, Baytown, Tex., writes: "My son Eugene Robert Wiggen, engineering graduate of University of Texas, has finished his Army work and is now working for Olen Mathieson at Brandenburg, Ky., as a chemical engineer."

Bill and Dorothy H. Mollan, '26, 412 E. 80th St., Seattle 15, Washington, write: "We are enjoying Bill's retirement as of June '56; now have two WSC sons-in-law, making us a family of six WSC grads. We have a grandson, Z, in Everett and another who is three-months-old in Portland."

Charlotte Walker Gyllenberg, '26, 2330 Hudson,